RIO DE JANEIRO, AUGUST 18t, 1893.

The situation in Rio Grunde is still largely a matter of pure conjecture. So completely has the government closed all telegraphic communication, including the cable south, to political news that we have received no telegraphic news whatever from Rio Grande since the Waudenkolk raid. This is of course of no practical effect so far as the revolution in that slate is concerned, but it is a gross and illegal interference with the free transmission of news and a gratuitous annoyance to the public. And the practical effect will be to alienate public sympathy still more from an execu-THE situation in Rio Grunde is still public sympathy still more from an execu-tive who is inclined to rule as a dictator tive who is inclined to rule as a dictator, rather than as a constitutional president. The news of the federalist capture of Jaguarao still lacks confirmation, the reports at Montevideo being very contradictory when the last mail steamer left that port. It is possible that the repeated announcements that a pacification has been arranged, and that Julio de Castilhos is to resign, has had some effect on the movements of the federalists. It may be assumed that they federalists. It may be assumed that they will not be averse to any satisfactory settlement of the dispute, but it is certain that ment of the dispute, but it is certain that they will demand guarantees against another betrayal such as that of the Bagé agreement some three years ago. It would be of great advantage to the country could a really honorable and satisfactory settlement be arranged, but such a settlement, to be permanent, must definitely prohibit all further federal interference in the local affairs of the state. Whether the President is prepared to give up his penchant for political intrigue we do not know, but we do know that he will never see peace and prosperity in Brazil until he does.

THE complication in Santa Catharina has The complication in Santa Catharina has at last resulted in an armed conflict. At Blumenau, on the 28th or 29th ult., a state police force was met by the revolutionists and compelled to retire, both siles, it is reported, suffering losses. The police force was under the command of the chief of police, and was under orders to suppress the Hercillo Luz revolution in that place was the result to reinstruct the decreased pumpicipal. of holice, and was finder orders to suppress the Herefilio Luz revolution in that place and to reinstate the deposed manicipal council. The revolutionists were armed with the rifles recently dispatched to the place by the military officials in Desterro. At the time this conflict ocentred considerable bodies of armed men, calling themselves "civic guards" (guardas civicos) were arriving in Desterro from the disturbed localities, and with them the leaders of the revolution. They were all received and quartered at the military barnacks, from which they went out to parade the streets and incite an insurrection against the state authorities. This open protection of insurgents by the national commandant, Col. Serm Martins, of conrse prevented any action against them by the police authorities and gave them a strength and advantage which the movement could not otherwise ties and gave them a strength and advantage which the movement could not otherwise have obtained. On the 30th a military demonstration was made by Col. Serra Martins, who paraded his whole force and fired artillery salutes in the streets, with the purpose evidently of overawing the police force defending the state executive. Open preparations were also made at the barracks force defending the state executive. Open preparations were also made at the barracks for an attack on the governor's residence, as shown by telegrams of that same date asking the Rio government for assistance. It is said that telegrams were sent from the war asking the Kio government for assistance. It is said that telegrams were sent from the war department instructing. Martins to remain neutral and to recognize only the legal state government, but in spite of all this the "civic guards" left the barracks on the early moming of the 3 rst and attacked the governor's palace from all sides. The revolutionists were armed with Comblain (military) rifles, and were under commands issued from the barracks, as shown by their suspending fire on a signal from that place. The telegrams published this morning report the death of two persons in the palace, the sentinel at the door and a citizen in the street. The assaulants were then withdrawn and Col. Serra Martins advised the governor that he would maintain order, but he subsequently permitted the revolutionists to break into the state treasury and the municipal hall, and is said, to be concedibing the revolutionists to be substituted to the state treasury and the municipal hall, and is said to be concedibing the revolutionists. the revolutionists to break into the state treasury and the municipal hall, and is said to be concealing the revolutionary governor, Hercilio Luz, in his quarters. The result of this shameful intrigue will be to create a civil war in the state of Santa Catharina similar to that which exists in Rio Grande, and for this the government of Floriano Peixoto is largely to blame. Had the Blumenau insurgents not received aid and encounagement from the national government, and the assurance of support from the military forces in that state, they would never have resorted to arms. They have no abases to complain of and no reasons whatever for resisting the legal authorities of the state. It is simply a political controversy, in which the state authorities are accused of being friendly to the Rio Grande revolutionists. Two military officers, Col. Serra Martins and Major Firmino, have been largely instrumental in organizing this opposition to the state government, and as they have been relained there notwithstanding the complaints against them their superiors must take the responsibility for their revolutionary conduct. Were there any impartial and rational government in this capital these officers would be cont-martialled and punished at once for their intrigues against the executive of an independent state, but this is more than ernment if this explant insection to the contribution of their intrigues against the executive of an independent state, but this is more than we can expect. The wretched intrigue will be encouraged until the state authorities in Santa Catharina are overthrown and by that time anarchy will also be established. It is to be bitterly regretted that the people of this country can not be induced to leave their rivalries and political contentions to the peaceful decision of the ballot-box, but as long as a dictatorship exists and personal influences and prejudices are superior to all law, such a result can not be expected. Under existing conditions anarchy and rapid demoralization, socially and politically, can only be the logical results.

AMERICAN STATISTICS.

AMERICAN STATISTICS.

The United States Treasury lepariment has issued the following circular to customs officials and others in regard to the statistical returns on imports from countries having a depreciated currency:

"The department has been notified that the statistics of imports from countries having a depre-

"This defect is especially noticeable in returns of free goods, as for example, coffee and india rubber coming from Brazil, and goods subject to specifically, such as wood coming from the Argentine republic.
"At the present time, in view of the fluctuating noty, such as wool coming from the Argentine republic,

"At the present time, in view of the fluctuating halance of trade, it is especially important that statistics of imports and exports shall be prepared as accorately as pussible.

"You are therefore instructed to require importers to declare upon all entries of goods which are free of idny or solicet to specific taxes of idny whether the value of the goods is expressed in the idepreciated own or paper cornercy of the country of exportation, and if expressed in depreciated com or paper corners of the country of specific principles of the country of specific principles and relief to the source to its equivalent value in the standard coin of the United States at the time of exportation.

RAILROAD NOTES

—If the great Central railway, with its hundred and fifty thousand courts of invested capital, is to produce only 1,000,000$ net revenue this year, is it not time for the government to go out of husiness and lease the road to someone who knows how to manage it? It is a buroing discredit to a government to own so hadly managed a road.
—The Central railway seems to be becoming rapitly mittarized and demoralized. The new regulations now permit the ticket-office and gate to be opened only teu minutes before the departure of a train, and the passage to the platform is guarded by two files of alont twenty soldiers, who averawe anyone who wishes to complain. Of course ten minutes are not enough, and the result is that scores of people are continually missing their trains.

—We nuderstand that, in view of the obstacles.

minutes are not configured in the continually missing their trains.

—We understand that, in view of the obstacles to traile between the intector of S. Paulo and the port of Santos, it has been proposed to connect the Mogyana and Paulista roads with the Sapicahy, giving an outlet to their traile through the port of Uhatibba. According to this plan the Paulista will be extended to S. Paulo and there connect with the Norte (the government line), which will connect it with the Sapicaby. The latter will connect with the Mogyana by means of its Penha branch. We have frequently advocated the development of these extensions to connect with the Ubatuba line, as it will give S. Paulo a new and more commodious port.

The governor of Minas Geraes sanctioned on the 25th nlt, the railway act mentioned in these columns some weeks ago. It authorizes contracts for a railway line from Omn Preto, or other point on the Central, to Peçanla and thence to Theophilo Ottoul, and another line from Santa Barlara, by way of Ponte Nova and Manhuassé, to the boundary of Espiritu Santo to connect with the line in that state passing litrough Alegre. The state offers 50 years' privilege, a zone of 60 kilbmetres and a gnaroutee of 6% for 30 years on the capital not exceeding 50,000$ per kilometre. The governor is also authorized to assist the Spincalsy, Muzambiaho, Bahia e Minas, and the Themphilo Ottoni tu Steina companies in the completion of their lines, by gnarantees. The gnaranteed capital of the Sapucalsy man line is fixed at 18,736,5025, 152, the company to surrender its concessions for hranches to Lavras and Laurhary and extension to Poos Alegre. The Muzambiaho gnarantee is to eover only the line from Lavras to the S. Panlo houndary line. As to the Bahia e Minas line, the givernor is authorized to disappropriate and build the road in case he fails to make a satisfactory contract.
